

ELECTION DAY JUDICIAL COVERAGE – NOVEMBER 3, 2020

The court has decided it a more prudent course of proceeding to revise its usual election day practice of having one (1) judge through a series of three (3) hour shifts available at the courthouse from 7:00 a.m. until 10:00 p.m. to instead have two (2) judges on site each shift. Below is such a list of the judges assigned for this upcoming election day's (November 3, 2020) judicial coverage:

7:00 a.m. – 10:00 a.m.	-	Judges Amoroso and Pileggi
10:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.	-	Judges Pagano and Eckel
1:00 p.m. – 4:00 p.m.	-	Judges Cappelli and Scanlon
4:00 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.	-	Judges Cartisano and Capuzzi
7:00 p.m. – 10:00 p.m.	-	Judges Dozor and Bradley

To assure the fair and efficient apportionment among the judges of all matters then requiring judicial attention, on any pleading's of-record filing the same will be directly and timely sent by the Delaware County Office of Judicial Support to that of the Court Administrator. Salient personnel of the Court Administrator's office will promptly forward all such matters to an available judge. Once designated to a specific member of the bench, that judge will determine a next appropriate course of proceeding and relatedly so notify any interested parties.

Should an attorney for an interested party want to request for whatever the reasons a conference with a judge, all those applications are to be made through the Court Administrator's Office to again help assure a fair and efficient distribution of the election day workload among the then available judges. These requests can be made through telephoning 610 891-4557.
